

ISIS SAPP-GRANT NAMED AN “EXTRAORDINARY WOMAN IN BROOKLYN”

For Immediate Release

Brooklyn, NY. Isis Sapp-Grant, Founder and Executive Director of the Youth Empowerment Mission, Inc. (YEM) was honored by District Attorney Charles J. Hynes on March 9, 2008, in celebration of Women’s History Month.

Dedicated to providing young people and families in high-risk environments with real alternatives to violence and delinquency, Isis Sapp-Grant stands with other outstanding women in the Borough- activists; mentors; advocates for women, children, immigrants, the poor and the elderly; business owners, professors, a publisher, a journalist, etc.- all nominated by Brooklyn residents.

Sapp-Grant was part of an exclusive unveiling in the lobby of the District Attorney’s office, where a large calendar featuring each of the thirty extraordinary women’s picture and biographies will be on display the entire month. Isis Sapp-Grant has the spotlight on Wednesday, March 26, 2008.
